Thank you so much for your cooperation, cooperation, embedding details, examples, and help! 1. eAAeA Historically, Romance tales of antiquity came to England from Normandy (present Day Germany) along with the Norman Conquest, Matter of Britain. The initial lack of strong government divided the people into feudal states. eAAeA Medieval romances are stories of adventure in which the chief parts are played by knights, famous kings, or distressed ladies, acting most often under the impulse of love, religious faith, or, in many, mere desire for adventure. eAAeA The style of these Romances was called eAAAAlliterative RevivaleAAA style. Medieval romances have a simple, predictable plot with some inevitable or unavoidable events. eAAeA Gist: Medieval romance is characterized by chivalry, disguised identity, love, unreal locations and suspense. 6. These were:- eAAeA 1. They took the classical Charlemagne and knights together with their arms and armours and mingled them with superstitions and myths.The romances caught the popular imagination. This period lasted from AD 500 to 1500 and is referred as "middle" because it was the time when the European nations began to form. The plots are set in distant times and distant places, remote from everyday life. It uses concealed or disguised identity. Chivalry is the embodiment of virtues like---Honor, Respect, Loyalty, Courtesy, Gentlemanly behavior,courage, Self-less acts. Want more? 4. With the rise of the knight came the rise of chivalry, the knightly code of behavior. The settings of a medieval romance tend to be imaginary and vague. It indicated verse narrative in a vernacular language (from Latin "romance scribe" to write in a Romance language, a language derived from Latin).Then the word romanz was applied to works written in a vernacular language in general.
